The white savages of the Northwest should be given a good dose of bad Indian medicine.

A PERSONAL explanation from Senator CAMERON concerning his transactions in silver is in order.

THE fleecing of the State and fattening of political henchmen through the fee system must be stopped.

THE Sioux are justified in refusing to give up their guns as long as they are unprotected from armed white murderers.

THE beautiful song, "Better Apart," will be given to every want advertiser in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH of next Sunday.

THE primary election law should be so amended that it will operate to carry out the will of the voters, not of the party bosses.

IS IT a political dead-lock or the selection of an Independent Jury Commissioner for St. Louis which is so much feared in Jefferson City?

ONE measure which St. Louis expects of the Legislature is a law which will enable her to compel the placing of dangerous electric wires under ground.

THE stirring of the silver pool has brought some unpleasant things to the surface, which suggest that there are more and worse things at the bottom.

THE question in Kansas is no longer whether INGALLS is done for or not, but whether he shall be permitted to drag the Republican party down to ruin with him.

THE retention of the fee system in the Coal Oil Inspector's office permits the Governor to pay his political debts out of funds which should go into the State Treasury.

WHEN a political tie among the judges has prevented the selection of a Jury Commissioner for this city it will be time enough for the Legislature to interfere in the matter.

THE Republican majority in the Senate is slowly but steadily working towards the gag point under the desperate pressure of the force bill lunatics. The danger to the party is imminent at present.

THE Liberal victory in the Hartlepool election shows that the wranglers in the Irish party have not yet succeeded in alienating their British friends. There is still hope for home rule if wise counsels prevail.

THE heavy purchases of arms and ammunition from manufacturers in this country by Guatemala may be taken as an indication that her presidential bully is not satisfied with the drumming that little San Salvador gave him, but wants another.

THE three Farmers' Alliance men in the Illinois Legislature are needlessly placing a heavy expense on their State by holding out against the Senatorial candidacy of Gen. PALMER who is committed to the support of all the reasonable demands of their constituents. It was the farmer vote which gave Gen. PALMER the magnificent endorsement he has received from the people of Illinois.

EX-GOV. OGLESBY represents the political conditions in Illinois against which the people are in revolt, while Gen. PALMER is the leader of the revolution. The three Farmers' Alliance members of the Illinois Legislature should not find it difficult to choose between these two men for the Senatorship.

THE Evanston Co-Operative Housekeeping Association, another Bellamy scheme to live at an $8 rate on a $4 income, has proved that reality differs from fiction by assigning with liabilities far in excess of assets. The experiment of planting a socialist group in a competitive system has proved a disastrous failure in every case so far tried.

PLANS for the improvement of the primary election law should receive the careful attention of the Legislature. Under the present law the power of the Central Committee is almost unlimited and the opportunities of political rascals to defeat the will of the people without fear of punishment are great. The law needs amendment in several important particulars.

THE Government's record of broken pledges made to the Sioux, a summary of which was given in yesterday's POST-DISPATCH, should induce officials, civil and military, to approach the subject of managing the Indians with a spirit of deep humility. Public honor is involved in the settlement of the question of how to treat the poor, half-starved redskins who have been driven into the reservation pen again.

INGALLS is not doing the Casablanca act. The burning deck of the Republic ship has become too hot for him and he is now cooling his heels on the Alliance platform of opposition to plutocracy and its force bill. If defeated, his political career will end on a better platform than he ever stood on when elected. If he cannot show wherein he has reformed politics, he can at least show a wonderful reformation of his opinions wrought by one Kansas election.

THERE is a railroad and bridge "combine" in St. Louis which has dictated the appointment of a Recorder of Voters and now wants to control the appointment of a Jury Commissioner. It has found that it cannot control a majority of the Circuit Judges, and for that reason alone a bill has been introduced to take the appointment away from the courts and give it to the "combine" by making it one of the wheels of the Governor's spoils machine.

The Legislature ought to sit down heavily on that bill, and lose no time in putting an end to the coal oil fee grab.

THE defaulting Treasurer of Arkansas seems to be the victim of bad methods prevailing in the politics of his State. Instead of profiting by his loans of State money and running away, as Treasurer BURKE of Louisiana did, with the proceeds of theft or embezzlement, he has impoverished himself and will probably be made to feel the severity of the law.

A system which makes the illicit use of public money a possible object brings treasury rings into nominating conventions and subjects a Treasurer to machine pulls which even honest men are not always strong enough to resist.

THE ARKANSAS House by a vote of 66 to 22 exactly 3 to 1 followed the example of Alabama in refusing to make any appropriation for a State exhibit at Chicago's Fair till the fate of the force bill is decided. It is believed in the South that the passage of that bill is a deliberate attempt to create a situation which will repel immigrants, and that it would be a useless waste of money to get up any exhibition of Southern resources at Chicago while that measure is in force. It is openly declared in Southern Legislatures that such hostile sectional legislation means a sectional

COLUMBIAN Fair, instead of a national one.

A STATEMENT of the profits of the Pittsburgh iron firms in 1890, carefully tabulated by an expert, Mr. N. DALE of that city, puts the profits of thirty-one firms named at an aggregate of $20,600,000. The firms whose profits amounted to $500,000 or more include Singer, Ninick & Co., $500,000; Miller, Metcalfe, Parkin & Co., $500,000; Shoemaker & Co., $750,000; Spang, Chalfant & Co., $800,000; A. M. Byers & Co., $900,000; Oliver Iron & Steel Co., $1,500,000; Park Bros. & Co., $2,000,000; Pennsylvania Tube Works, $2,000,000; Jones & Laughlin, $2,400,000; Carnegie, Phipps & Co. and Carnegie Bros., $5,000,000. Such profits show where the "fat" comes from to oil the wheels of tariff legislation and who gets the benefit of such legislation. And yet the $5,000,000 of profits of the Carnegie firms does not include his equally large profits derived from his monopoly of the Connellsburg coke supply, which enables him to control the iron and steel industry. It is said that by ordering a stoppage of the coke production at his pits he could close two-thirds of the blast furnaces of America.

Hoodoo and Who Don't.

Hoodoo Jones of the St. Louis REPUBLIC claims that his paper is more prosperous than ever before in its history. If that be true he ought to lift the $100,000 mortgage resting on the concern.

MECHANICS' EXCHANGE AND THE PROPOSED MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL.

Too Many Lawyers and Not Enough Mechanics Graduated From Our High Schools and Colleges—The State Asked to Establish a Mechanical School.

Senator Espenschied introduced a bill in the State Senate of Jefferson City yesterday for the establishment and maintenance of a mechanical trade school in St. Louis under a board of commissioners appointed by the Governor. The bill was drafted by Mr. Henry Feuerbach of the St. Louis Mechanics' Exchange, and is substantially the same bill that was drawn up by Mr. Patrick Mulcahy and introduced into the State Legislature two years ago. There was no organized movement to push the Mulcahy bill through, and it was not adopted. The bill in the hands of a committee until the close of the session, but the Feuerbach bill has been endorsed by the St. Louis Mechanics' Exchange and several other influential bodies, including the Kansas City Mechanics' Exchange and the St. Joe Mechanics' Exchange and the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange, the exchange of St. Louis, and the friends of the measure have little doubt of its enactment as a law. A memorial to the Legislature to pass the bill has also been adopted by the St. Louis Mechanics' Exchange and will be sent to the other exchanges.

SECRETARY WALDEN EXPLAINS.

"The bill provides that the school shall be under the supervision of a board of five commissioners," said Mr. Richard Walsh, the Secretary of the Mechanics' Exchange, this morning. "We are to be master mechanics themselves and receive a stipend of $1,000 a month." The bill also provides that the school will be located in St. Louis, and is to be open to young men of this State between the ages of 14 and 21 free of charge, subject to certain rules of admission to be adopted by the board of commissioners. The bill also provides for the purchase of a building site, the erection of a building and the purchase of materials and books. The idea is to establish a State school here something like Col. Auchmuty's private institute in New York city. That is the largest and best equipped school in the country, although there is one in Philadelphia managed in connection with the Mechanics' Exchange of that city, which is doing splendidly. Boston is also to have one, and it will not be long before manual training is taught in every school in the country. I am in full sympathy with the bill, and I hope the New York school myself, but I have read considerable about it, and there are now three St. Louis boys attending the Auchmuty school. Fred Ables has a son there, and so has D. J. Collins, and the boys are both in the plumbing department. That school makes boys of any part of the world, and I believe nearly every State in the Union is represented there, but, of course, it is a pay school. Our proposed school will be free and the attendance limited to residents of this State. The scholars will, of course, have to find their own boarding places, and we will have to provide them with food and clothing. The school will be an amateur school, and the students will be required to work, and the parents will be required to pay $1,000 a year for the privilege of sending their sons to the school.

"There was an excellent audience at the Actor's Fund benefit at the Olympic Theatre yesterday. The programme was so full of good things that the Kendals were not missed. The little one-act sketch of Gus Thomas, "A Man of the World," was well received, and the late handsome Jack Barnes was most satisfactory; J. H. Dodson gave a capital characterization of Gunnison, A. M. Denison was excellent as Dorner, and clever work must be credited to Miss Campbell and Miss Connelly.

"The Ironmaster," will be repeated tonight and for the matinee to-morrow. Mrs. Kendal will shine in the comedy part of Susan Hartley in "A Scrap of Paper." "The Queen's Shilling" will close the week.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

THE REPORTED SALE OF ONE OF THE CITY'S OLDEST CHURCHES.

Father Taerher of St. Mary's Church denies that the property has been disposed of—Y. M. C. A. Convention—Revivals.

For some time past rumors have been flying about to the effect that the property of St. Mary's German Catholic Church at Third and Gratiot streets was going to be sold, and the congregation moved farther west. This parish, at present in charge of Rev. W. Taerher, was established nearly fifty years ago, and was at first placed in charge of Father Fischer, who, during his life-time succeeding in building up his church to one of the strongest in the city. Since that time, however, the movement has constantly been westward, and as a consequence, this parish, being in the extreme eastern portion of the city, has had a hard time supporting itself. For years the agitation for a removal has been going on among the parishes, and in the present time the progress has been made. The reason of this is that a great many of those interested are still strongly interested in having the church remain where it is at present. The higher church authorities, until lately, have, however, taken little interest in the question. On the day of January, however, when the annual financial report of St. Mary's Parish was presented to Vicar-General Brady, the matter was called to his attention, and it was found that the membership of the parish had so decreased that the amount of money available for its support was not enough to meet the expenses. This gave the agitation a new impetus, since which time it has been going on with increasing force. The parts of the congregation of different opinions on the matter, are very evenly divided, and is feared by the father in charge that the members will be seriously affected if it should be said that the church is to be moved, those who desire it to remain where it is would be disatisfied, and should it be given out that a determination had been arrived at to remain in the present location, others would be much disquieted. Father Taerher, when asked this morning, said that he was little to say on the subject.

"We have received no offer for the property," said he, "and no negotiations are pending to that end. This whole matter was started by a mere rumor concerning the financial state of the parish. This talk has been going the rounds for years, and it means little more at the present time than at any time previous. No suggestion of a removal has been made, and I do not know that there will be. While the membership of my church is not large, it is still sufficient to decrease. The people have talked over this removal and opinions differ as to the advisability of such an action. It is something that will be settled by time alone. The agitation is not going on any more than usual."

Since the last cold storm has blown down a landmark of the Christian religion in St. Louis will be removed. Some time back this peculiar-looking old stone building was one of the leading church edifices in the city, and its history contains many interesting reminiscences. Many of St. Louis' best known men have worshipped within the structure, which even now does not seem to affect, but it still stands as grand as in the days of yore. The associations which are entwined with the church makes it very dear to the hearts of a great many parishioners.

Revivals in Progress.

The revival at the Calarendon Presbyterian Church is in full swing with much success. The meetings are in charge of Rev. H. Gauss, pastor, assisted by Rev. W. J. Lee.

The third week of the protracted meeting at the Eden German M. E. Church, Nineteenth and Warren, is still progressing. This is the third week of this meeting, services being at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at night. Rev. Ross is in charge, and many additions to the membership of the church have been made.

Rev. P. W. Jacoby, assisted by his brother, Rev. H. C. Jacoby, is conducting a remarkably successful revival at Bethel German M. E. Church, Fifteenth and Wash streets. Both nights of the week services are held. Twenty-three new names were added to the roll of the church membership last Sunday.

Rev. H. Naumann is holding, with good results, a protracted meeting at Bethel German M. E. Church, Eighth and Locust streets. The meetings are presented to the public, and the church continues to attract attention. Rev. C. G. Bartholomew, the evangelist, is conducting the services. This is the third week and many additions to the church have been secured. The pastor, Rev. Hopkins, is sick and therefore unable to assist at the meetings.

To-night the revival meetings, which have been in progress for three weeks past at Central Union Church, Eleventh and Locust streets, will come to a close. They have been very successful, the meetings of this last week having been particularly fruitful of conversions. The value of the series of meetings is not so much in the number of conversions as in the general awakening among the Christians which has resulted. The audiences the past week have been large, delegations from the Union Congregational Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the German Evangelical Protestant Church being present every night. Rev. Dana W. Bartlett assisted the pastor and Mr. S. F. Wishard, the evangelist. Next week, according to agreement, Rev. Wm. Johnson will go with his people to the Union Congregational Church, Tenth street, near Cass avenue, and assist Rev. Bartlett.

The Ministers' Alliance.

The next Monday meeting of the Ministers' Alliance will doubtless be an interesting one. The composition of the "Committee of One Hundred" will be announced, and arrangements made for this year's effort to strictly enforce the radical Sunday law. The ministers of the city are not at unity on this subject, but those who desire to make another effort toward enforcement are largely in the majority. There will not from present prospects a clashing opinion at this meeting, for the reason that they favor the fact that they are in a hopeless minority.

Much interest is centered in the probable action of the Alliance conference, and the composition of this year's committee is anxiously looked for. Several of the reverend gentlemen are interested in the project, promising a broad sweep to the people in the names of the men who will be on the committee. They assert that a great many business men will take an interest in the matter, and that the agitation will be pushed with more vim than ever before.

The Y. M. H. A. Convention.

At the meeting of the National Convention of the Young Men's Hebrew Association in Memphis a few days ago the invitation of St. Louis was unhesitatingly accepted. The delegates, Messrs. Samuel Frank, Louis Goldlove and Nathan Kaufman, returned home elated with their success in securing the convention so easily. There will be several hundred delegates in attendance, and the convention will take place the second Monday in June, 1891.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association is a religious charitable organization, and hopes to have a home of its own in the near future. Three meetings of the Board of Directors have been held this year, and the organization hopes to have a home in which to entertain their visitors when the time comes. The members of the new board say that they will not make the mistake of the old board in desiring to secure magnificent quarters at the very start and then wind up by not securing any at all.

Services of Thanksgiving.

The Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., Bishop of Missouri, will preach the sermon at the Thanksgiving services in the Church of the Ascension, corner of Bates and Goodfellow avenues, Calhoun place, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The brief history of this church is full of interest, and its great growth is evidence of the "Westward drift" of the city. The church was organized about two and a half years ago with twenty communicants, who, for want of space, had to meet in the parlor of Mrs. Clemons. The congregation proceeded to build a picture-like church on the above location. Rev. Wm. Elmer was called to take charge in October, 1888, and the same week Messrs. N. G. Pierce, F. L. Clark and D. F. Leavitt were appointed a building committee. The church and grounds were immediately occupied. The building was completed and the first service was held on Christmas day following. The church was consecrated by Bishop Tuttle in January, 1889. Within two years the building proved too small for the congregation, and another building committee of Messrs. F. G. Gray, Wm. P. Nelson, and C. W. Holland was appointed to carry on the scheme of enlarging adopted by the vestry. Their work is now finished and the service next Sunday will express the gratitude of the congregation for the rich blessing poured out upon them.

One feature in the management of this parish is unique. It has never gone into debt but paid for its building and its enlargement as they were erected. It stands first among the churches of the city in its permanence, economy, for mission work, and benevolent work and the little flock of twenty has increased to seventy-six. All persons are cordially invited to attend the services on Sunday.

The Woodworth Church.

Mrs. Woodworth is expected to arrive in St. Louis Monday. Her church at Fourteenth and Lucas place is being thoroughly renovated for the appearance of the great spiritual worker. The old chairs are being dusted, the seats are being patched up and the broken windows are being stopped up with new panes. Father A. D. Pease, pastor, is rapidly awaiting the arrival of his chief, who will immediately upon her arrival settle the factional quarrel that is now raging in the flock.

St. John's Parish Items.

The semi-annual election of officers for St. John's Young Men's Sodality took place Tuesday evening, Jan. 20, in the sodality room, and the following officers were elected: J. P. McDermit, President; F. W. Moyle, Vice-President; Prof. Wm. Moyle, Secretary; Geo. A. Callahan, Financial Secretary; Edward J. Geahan, Treasurer; R. D. Sterne, Director of Music; Fred B. Worden; Director of Drama; Wm. Moyle; Director of Literary Circle; Wm. F. Fitzgerald; Consultant; Rev. Wm. D. Tuttle, pastor.

The Union M. E. Church, Lucas and Garrison avenues, will give a musical entertainment next Monday. Local talent will be employed, and the attendance will doubtless be good.

Rev. J. W. Parmalee, pastor of the Church of the New Jerusalem, 284 Lucas avenue, will on Sunday lecture on "Geology and Genesis, or Human Evolution." This is the first of a series of lectures that will be given bearing on this same subject.

Rev. James H. Brooks, D. D., will preach at the Washington and Clinton Avenue Church on Sunday evening, Feb. 4, and will be assisted by Rev. J. W. Parmalee.

Rev. E. A. Hoffman, Secretary of the Northwest Kansas Conference, preaches at the Good Avenue M. E. Church Sunday morning.

Rev. J. W. Parmalee, pastor, will preach in the evening, choosing for his subject, "Paul on Mars Hill."

The Young People's Society Christian Endeavor, of Central Union Church, Eleventh and Locust streets, elected officers Tuesday evening for the ensuing three months: John E. Kline, President; Wm. F. Fitzgerald, Vice-President; E. S. Howard, Secretary, and Miss Tillie Meyer, Treasurer. The society is in a prosperous condition.

A series of entertainments are to be given at Compton Hill Congregational Church. The first will be on Feb. 1, and will be performed by Frank Brinkley, "Our Men," in the morning, and "Two Baskets of Flies" in the evening. Appropriate musical selections will be rendered by the choir.

DEATH OF M. W. QUINN.

The Oldest and One of the Most Popular Hotel Men in the City.

Mr. M. W. Quinn, proprietor of the Richelieu Hotel, died last night of apoplexy. He was the oldest hotel man in St. Louis in point of service, having been in the business in this city continuously for nearly thirty years. He was a native of Ireland, but he came to this country when a young man, and in 1862 was a clerk in the old Monroe House on Second street. During the next five years he was at the Old Monroe, Hotel on Olive and Second streets, and at the St. Nicholas, on Fourth, between Morgan street and Franklin avenue. At the opening of the Southern he was made night clerk of that hotel and he remained there until it was destroyed by fire in April, 1871. Then he took charge of Hotel Lorraine, opposite the present Hotel Hurst, on Fourth street. About a year ago he purchased the lease and furniture of the Richelieu, paying $300 for them, and was doing a good business there when he died. Mr. Quinn had perhaps a larger acquaintance in the Union than any other hotel man in the city, having had an excellent memory and a wonderful knack of making friends and keeping them. His connection with the various hotels during a period of nearly thirty years brought him in contact with many of the great men of every class, in every avocation, every profession and calling, every grade of society and every portion of the Union, and to all was courteous and affable alike, having a pleasant greeting for everybody, quite in contrast with some of the hotel clerks of the new generation. Mr. Quinn was about 60 years old and leaves a widow and three sons, Ambrose, Leon and Ryan.

Good for All Three.

The greatest good for the greatest number is the work aimed at by the reformers, to root out corruption, peculation of funds that can be had. It is a good thing for the manufacturer, for the consumer, for the newspapers, when an article of merit is put upon the market, is made known by news-paper advertising, and, through a series of years, proves its worth to those interested in it. It is good for the newspapers, and gives its makers a fair living. Pearline, the great washing powder manufactured by James Pyle & Sons, New York, has done all this. If it is not making labor easier your home, it is your fault. Something of his story is made plain in an advertisement in another column.

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.

Thomas Culligan Passes Away at the City Hospital.

Thomas Culligan died at the City Hospital yesterday afternoon from loss of blood and a shock to his system. A few minutes after 12 o'clock Culligan was struck by the Kirkwood accommodation, on the Missouri Pacific tracks, while passing Clifton Heights. The wheels of the engine passed over both legs, crushing them below the knee in a horrible manner. Dr. C. Aldenhoven of Clifton Heights cut the strips of flesh which held the mangled parts to the stumps and dressed the members as best he could. He was sent by rail to St. Louis on the incoming Creve Coeur train and removed to the Union Depot from which he was forwarded to the City Hospital. In a little more than an hour, after his admission Culligan was dead. The deceased was a single man, 28 years old, and a laborer by occupation. He has for some time been at Tamm Avenue and Main Street road. Coroner Irwin will hold an inquest in the case this afternoon.

LEAVE St. Louis 8:30 a. m., daily. (Sundays included) arrive Chicago 4:30 p. m. via Vandalia and Illinois Central line. Ticket office southwest corner Broadway and Olive, with Adams Express, and Union Depot. Rate, $5.75.

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL.

New Scales of Wages Adopted by the Labor Unions Represented.

The Electric Linemen and Wiremen's Union, composed of indoor workers, has been admitted to the Building Trades Council, giving the council the membership of ten unions. The Bricklayers, Stonemasons and Plasterers' Union are, however, still out, having refused to affiliate with the union. The scales of wages adopted by each union in the council was called for at the last meeting of the council and the following scales were reported and ratified: Tin, Sheet-iron and Cornice Workers' Union, $2.50 per day; Lathe and Machine Workers' Union, $2.50 for men and $3 for second-class men; Marble Cutters and Mantel Setters' Union, $3 per day for first-class men and $2.50 for second-class men; Architectural Iron Workers and Chippers' Union, $2.50 per day for iron workers and $1.80 for chippers; Whitemen's Union, $3 per day or 67 cents an hour; Plumbers' Union, $3.50 a day.

These figures are based on eight hours as a day's work. The other unions will report next Wednesday.

FOUGHT OVER A WOMAN.

Joseph Berger Cut Henry Wedig at an Early Hour.

Joseph Berger and Henry Wedig fought over a woman in front of Esther's Theater, 714 St. Charles street, about 1:30 o'clock this morning. Berger used knife, giving his opponent a six-inch gash on the left arm to his bone. Wedig was sent to his home, 214 North Broadway, via the Dispensary. Berger was arrested by Sergt. King and Officer Wall of the Third District, about an hour later, being found concealed under the bed in the room of a woman at 814 North Eighth street. A warrant charging him with assault with intent to kill will be sworn out to-day.

Indoor Base Ball Introduced to St. Louis—Sullivan Will Make One More Fight—Dempsey Says Fitzsimmons Is a Great Man—Sporting News

NEW YORK Jan. 23.—It now seems that the adjustment of the differences of New York base ball clubs may not be all at once, at first apparent. The two houses in this city, it was generally believed, would be the consolidated and wiped out all controversies. Several meetings may have to be held, however, before the rival interests are merged into one. Complications have arisen which, while they will undoubtedly be happily adjusted in time, nevertheless look threatening now.

The first meeting toward bringing about a satisfactory settlement was held yesterday, and another will be held to-morrow. What was intended to be a social meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Exhibition Co. was held in the afternoon. The simultaneous appearance of several stockholders of the New York League Club excited curiosity in reporter, who investigated and learned some new phases of the local base ball situation.

It now appears that the Metropolitan Exposition Co., which has controlled the base ball interests of this city for several years, is a thine of the past. The recent base ball season was a failure, with something to do with his management. For example, last season the result became the organization of a new stock company. The company has been legally incorporated at Trenton under the laws of New Jersey, under the name of the American Exhibition Co.

The delegates yesterday refused to say what they proposed to do, but the answer will be found out about concert.
